Make a Difference with a Meeting.

By choosing The Old Courts for your event or meeting, you help culture grow. Your booking supports vital charitable work: from empowering community groups and inspiring young people, to championing local artists and creative projects that enrich life across the borough.

Space for Everyone.

We take great pride in our values and in being a welcoming, safe space that champions communities from all walks of life. These aren't just words to us, our actions reflect them every day. From platforming LGBTQ+ arts and culture, to supporting our resident Wigan Autistic Theatre Company, and co-developing a network for artists with disabilities and access needs, inclusion is at the heart of what we do.

We celebrate and share arts from a wide range of cultures, believing that Wigan is richer when every community is represented. We hope you'll join us in celebrating and sharing those inclusive values.

Journey to Enabling Access.

The Old Courts is committed to making our spaces and events as accessible and welcoming as possible for everyone. As a historic, repurposed listed building, we face certain physical limitations, including not currently having a lift. However, we continue to work hard to remove barriers wherever we can.

Our Victorian Court Room is accessed via stairs however we have a Super Trac™ (maximum weight 200kg) which is available for wheelchair users to use, this is operated by a member of staff. We also have accessible toilets in multiple areas, and a wheelchair ramp for access. Many of our team members are trained as Autism Friends and Dementia Friends, helping us to better support visitors with diverse needs.

We are also proud to collaborate with disabled artists and audiences to create meaningful, long-term change. While funding challenges mean we cannot yet achieve every improvement we'd like, we are actively seeking opportunities to make the building, our events and services more accessible.

If you have any access requirements or requests, please get in touch with us via email access@theoldcourts.com. We will always do our best to accommodate your needs and ensure you have a positive experience at The Old Courts.
